President's Message: By Marilyn Sibitz

Care Amiche,

I hope everyone has had an enjoyable summer, so far! I would like to thank Sally Accurso for stepping in for me while I was on vacation. Also, thank you to Vera Kaufman and Diane Sericati for chairing our Ravioli Luncheon and Bunco.

My husband and I traveled to Italy, first visiting Trieste, and then cruising along the Adriatic Sea, down the east coast of Italy from Venice to Malta. When our fellow travelers found out I was president of an Italian Club of 330 members and learned of our many activities, they wished they lived closer, so they could attend one of our functions! We members, are truly blessed to be here, thanks to the immigration of our families from Italy. And, having an Italian Club where we can continue to preserve our culture and heritage is wonderful!

In July, we have two events. On Saturday, July 14, we have the Western Night Dinner/Dance chaired by Becky and Roland Lazzarotto. This is a fun time to put on your jeans and boots and kick up your heels in a line dance or two. (See the box for information) Tuesday, July 17, is our Birthday Dinner and Biscotti Sale. (See box for details)

August continues to be busy for us. It starts with our meeting on August 7 with our own Spuntino. At this meeting, we will also honor our past presidents. On August 18, we have our Scholarship Fundraiser Tea. Be sure you make your reservations with Barbara Barassi at 510-799-2171, as soon as possible, as there is limited seating.

Please remember this is an election year, and you must have attended 3 meetings between September 2017 and August 2018 to vote.

I look forward to seeing you at some of our summer events.
Your support of our activities is very appreciated.

Con amore, Marilyn
