PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Marilyn Sibitz

Merry Christmas!

Cari Amiche,

This year has certainly been challenging for all of us. Our club has had five events prior to the pandemic; our January meeting and Birthday Dinner, our February meeting and Polenta Dinner, and our March meeting. As we end 2020, let us hope that things will change by summer of next year.

We do have one more activity, our Children's Christmas Drive-by Santa Day, on December 20. We have 62 children looking forward to receiving their gift from Santa (Rich Giaramita) and his elf helper (Becky Lazarratto). Elves Rozz Cantisani and yours truly wrapped the presents for Santa. We will have decorations created by Joan and Ralph Brignone that will be enjoyed for those waiting in their cars for their turn to see Santa. Anne Martorello has done a wonderful job organizing this day which will be fun for all.

Please celebrate this season as best you can, and bring back your family memories of past gatherings to help get through this difficult time. Let us all hope that we will be seeing each other some time next year.

Buon Natale e Felice Anno Nuovo a tutti!

Con amore, Marilyn

SCHOLARSHIPS

We have received donations from Theresa Canepa, Gail Jones, and Louise Jones for our Scholarship Fund. Thank you to all who have donated. There is still time to send in your donations to Rose Marie Gish, 5456 Manila Ave., Oakland, CA 94618

CHILDREN'S DRIVE-BY SANTA

Sunday, December 20, 2020

We are excited about our Children's Drive-By Santa Party. Those participating have been mailed information about times to come. This will be a fun day for our children and their family.
